

BIG NEWS THING HAPPENED

Somewhere in the city a CAR hit a KID

What we know

The kid was in his house when a car drove through the wall and into his livingroom

Here we spoke to his mom to see what she has to say

“I don't really care he didn't eat his vegetables last night so he got what he deserved”

-Mom

He might be alive but after learning what the mom said about him I don't really care. Should've eaten his brocolli
